

As a native of Israel, Dganit grew up in a Kibbutz. She moved with her husband to the US in 1992, to North Carolina. After years of creating art as a self-taught artist, she became a full time student at UNC Chapel Hill. Moving to Philadelphia, she earned her BFA with honors from the University of The Arts. In the summer of 2011 she graduated from the MFA Program at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. Currently, she is working in her studio at the Crane Old School in Philadelphia.
